

BIOGRAPHY FOR JACQUELINE CHANDLER

Jacqueline Chandler serves as the President, Chief Executive Officer and Founder of I Am PROOF, Inc. She is also the Chairman of the Board.

EDUCATION: Ms. Chandler received Masters Degrees in Human Resources Development and Public Administration from Webster University and a Graduate Certification in Instructional Systems Specialist (ISS) from TUI University. Additional educational accomplishments includes Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management, minor in Sociology University of Maryland; University College, Academic Instructor's Course, Department of the Air Force, Defense Equal Opportunity Advisors Course, Equal Employment Opportunity Counselors, Specialist and Special Emphasis Manager Courses. She is also a federally certified Mediator through the Department of Defense Equal Opportunity Management Institute (DEOMI) and a federally certified academic instructor, facilitator and trainer.

AWARDS: National Image Award, General Daniel "Chappie" James, Jr .Award and several military awards

PERSONAL/PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION: Jacqueline Chandler was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., She enlisted in the U.S.A.F. and assigned as a dental assistant stationed at Columbus Air Force Base, Miss. She retrained to the Social Actions/Military Equal Opportunity career field in 1985 and attended the Defense Equal Opportunity Management Institute. Assignments in the EO field included Warner Robins, GA., Soesterburg AB, The Netherlands, Iraklion Crete, Greece and Aviano AB, Italy. Jacqueline transferred in 1997 to DEOMI as a faculty member, Race and Ethnic Studies curriculum manager and the Air Force Service Specific Liaison for military and civilian students attending EO training. After a successful 23 years of dedicated military service, she held such prominent positions as curriculum manager and developer and Family care provider certifier for the Child Care Association of Brevard County, Curriculum Design and Developer contracted by Camber Corporation, Orlando FL. and DEOMI. Additionally, MSTI contract with DEOMI as trainer, facilitator and instructor. Jacqueline was also Columbia College, Campus Director at, Hunter Army Airfield, Savannah, Ga. as well as the assistant director of the Columbia College, Orlando Florida campus. Jacqueline is a current and active member of Women's Prosperity Network (WPN), Lead Brevard, Boy Scouts Troop #365, Cocoa Beach Chamber of Commerce and the YaYa Book Club.

I AM PROOF Background - I Am PROOF, Inc., is a 501(c)3 group-mentoring program for preteen boys and young men ages 11-18. It is structured to give preteen boys and young men the opportunity to explore an individual sense of 'self', through the 5-tier training and coaching platform, designed to produce future leaders. The I Am Proof (IAP) program is delivered at no cost to the participant, and is funded through individual donations, and community sponsorship. Mentors and instructors explore positive ways to build strong relationships with parents, teachers, and family members, while promoting the individual growth of the mentee. P.R.O.O.F Promote, Responsibility, Opportunity, Outcome through Faith and self-determination.

